

BIOFEEDBACK COURSE

Thursday, May 27, 2010
San Francisco Marriott Hotel, California

Program Director: Lane S. Palmer, M.D.

Course Description and Educational Goal:

To provide healthcare professionals treating children with urologic conditions with an overview of dysfunctional voiding and its management using biofeedback-pelvic floor retraining.

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

3:00-3:20 pm	Introduction and Nomenclature	Lane Palmer, MD
3:20-3:40 pm	Evaluation of the Child with Voiding Dysfunction	Aart Klijn, MD
3:40-4:00 pm	EMG-Uroflow: Performance and Interpretation	Wendy Bower, PhD
4:00-4:20 pm	Non-biofeedback Management Options	Paul Austin, MD
4:20-4:40 pm	Principles of Biofeedback	Janet Chase
4:40-5:00 pm	Break
5:00-6:45 pm	Live Demonstration	Sylvia Harding NP & Catherine Roukous, RN
6:45-7:00 pm	Conclusions/Evaluations/Certificates	Lane Palmer, MD

Objectives:

- ★ Understand the principles of evaluating the child with dysfunctional voiding
- ★ Recognize urodynamic patterns of dysfunctional voiding
- ★ Understand the therapeutic principles of biofeedback – pelvic floor retraining
- ★ Identify the specific hardware used for biofeedback – pelvic floor retraining
- ★ Analyze software used for biofeedback – pelvic floor retraining

REGISTER NOW

Pre-Registration is required to attend the Biofeedback Course. Registration is open to World Congress attendees only. Registration is limited so we encourage you to make your reservation early.

To register please visit the World Congress of Pediatric Urology website:
www.worldcongresspediatricurology.org

This course is being supported by an unrestricted third party educational grant from LABORIE.

www.laborie.com

This course is being presented as part:

1ST WORLD CONGRESS OF PEDIATRIC UROLOGY

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, USA

